Introduction and Guidelines for Contributors

Scope

Islamic Studies is a Scopus-indexed, double-blind, peer-reviewed research journal, published by the Islamic Research Institute since 1962. It publishes research articles, notes, comments, review essays, archives, documents, profiles, seminar proceedings, and book reviews in all disciplines of Islamic studies, including the Qur'ānic and ḥadīth sciences, sīrah, theology, and Islamic law and jurisprudence. Moreover, articles related to philosophy, psychology, anthropology, sociology, culture, civilization, architecture, political sciences, economics, language, literature, history, science, and technology with a focus on Islamic studies contents are also published in it. Being a repository of quality research, its contributors include some of the very best scholars of Islamic studies from across the world.

The Publishing Institute of the Journal

The Islamic Research Institute, International Islamic University, Islamabad, is a pioneer research institution in Pakistan. Established in 1960, the Institute's objectives include defining Islam "in terms of its fundamentals in a rational and liberal manner;" bringing out Islam's "dynamic character in the context of the intellectual and scientific progress of the modern world;" carrying out research in the contribution of Islam to thought, science and culture as well as holding academic studies in all the disciplines of Islamic Studies. For further information on the Institute, its publications, and its activities, please visit the Institute's website: <http://iri.iiu.edu.pk/>.

Abstracting and Indexing of Islamic Studies

Articles and book reviews published in Islamic Studies are abstracted/indexed in Scopus, Science of Religion; Index Islamicus; Public Affairs Information Service (PAIS); Internationale Bibliographie der Rezensionen (IBR); ATLA (American Theological Library Association) Religion Database; Religion Index One: Periodicals (RIO); and Index to Book Reviews in Religion (IBRR). Islamic Studies is archived in the databases of JSTOR, EBSCO, and ProQuest. Islamic Studies is also available on Gale and its affiliated international databases through Asianet, Pakistan.

Islamic Studies is among the journals approved by the Higher Education Commission of Pakistan for research publications and is listed in Ulrich's Periodicals Directory (Title ID: 86928). It is also registered with Crossref for DOI through the sponsorship of the Public Knowledge Project (PKP).

Guidelines for Authors

The main article submission must be between 7,000 and 10,000 words in length (shorter articles may be accepted when justified by their exceptionally high quality); book reviews are generally expected to be between 1,000 and 1,500 words. Manuscripts should be typed on A4-size paper in a conventional font, size 12-point. Line spacing must be double. Left and right-hand margins should be 1 inch. Notes referred to in the text should be numbered consecutively. The text should be saved in MS Word format. The Manuscript should be accompanied by a cover page carrying the title of the article, the author's full name, institutional affiliation, mailing address, email address, and any other information that the author may wish to provide with the article. Only one co-author, along with the principal author, of any article is allowed to be reviewed for publication in Islamic Studies.

Abstracts and Keywords

The authors are required to submit an abstract, not exceeding 250 words, along with their manuscripts. Four to six keywords should follow the abstract.

References

The references should be inserted as footnotes and numbered consecutively using Zotero software. A separate Zotero-generated bibliography of the article should be provided in a RIS file. All citations should follow the Chicago Manual of Style, 16th ed. The use of op. cit. is to be avoided. Quoted material should have a full location reference, including the DOI if applicable.

Loanwords and Foreign Words

Words in Arabic, Persian, Ottoman Turkish, and Urdu should follow this journal's transliteration scheme and conform to the transliteration system shown in the transliteration table of Islamic Studies.

Drawings, Illustrations, and Tables

Original drawings should preferably be submitted in a form ready for printing. Each illustration should bear a number, the author's name, and the title of the paper. The tables should be clear and comprehensible.

Submission of Manuscripts

Manuscripts are required to be submitted in MS Word files through the Open Journal System (OJS) at the following link: <http://irigs.iiu.edu.pk:64447/ojs/index.php/islamicstudies/login>. It is assumed that the manuscripts submitted to Islamic Studies are not under consideration for publication elsewhere. Editorial correspondence should be addressed to the Editor at <islamicstudies.iri@iiu.edu.pk>.

Copyright

Publication of material in the journal means that the author assigns copyright to Islamic Studies, including the rights to electronic publishing. This is, inter alia, to ensure the efficient handling of requests from third parties to reproduce articles as well as to enable wide dissemination of the published material. Authors may, however, use their material in other publications, acknowledging Islamic Studies as the original place of publication. Requests by third parties for permission to reprint should be addressed to the Editor, Islamic Studies.

Copy-editing

The Editor reserves the right to copy-edit and make necessary alterations to the material contributed for publication. The Editor also reserves the right to modify or omit any material deemed inappropriate for publication.

Provision of a Free Printed Copy of the Issue

Authors are entitled to a free printed copy of the issue in which their article is published.

Books for Review

Publishers are invited to submit books, in duplicate, for consideration of review. Publishers may send review copies to the Editor, Islamic Studies, Islamic Research Institute, International Islamic University, Faisal Masjid Campus, Islamabad, Pakistan.

Ethical Guidelines for Authors

Islamic Studies is committed to the highest ethical standards. To ensure high-quality academic research, it follows the Higher Education Commission of Pakistan's ethical guidelines. The authors should ensure that submissions are entirely their original work. They should appropriately cite materials and sources they consulted. Plagiarism and Fraudulent statements constitute unethical behaviour and are strongly condemned. Plagiarized or AI-generated submissions shall be rejected. Authors must not submit the same work or essentially the same research simultaneously to multiple journals. For the detailed ethical policy of the journal, please visit <http://irigs.iiu.edu.pk:64447/ojs/index.php/islamicstudies/ethical>.

Disclaimer

Responsibility for the accuracy of the stated facts rests solely with the authors. Opinions expressed in Islamic Studies are those of the authors and not necessarily endorsed by either the Editor or the Islamic Research Institute. Authors are themselves responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyright material from other sources.
